What wine guides say

1996: The wine has a fresh immediacy also on the palate; it is convincing, well-balanced and has a long aftertaste. (Vini d'Italia del Gambero Rosso)

1993: On the nose, characteristic notes of red fruits and berries. On the palate, an extraordinary structure, a full-bodied wine with a long aftertaste. Great wine! (Vini d'Italia del Gambero Rosso)

1991: A remarkably rich and complex Barbera which in this vintage on the nose offers us very clean and persistent notes of red berries, especially mulberries. The taste is abundant and soft, with excellent fruit and a long finish of plum. (Vini d'Italia del Gambero Rosso)

1990: The 1990 Vigna More offers an attractive ruby color, a straightforward nose of black fruits, excellent ripeness, medium body, and crisp acidity. (Parker's Wine Buyer's Guide)

1989: A warm, full-bodied wine with a lively acidity which supports the great structure. Nice and clean hints of mulberries. (Vini d'Italia del Gambero Rosso)
